

Reminder:

Last Club Meeting of the semester!

Monday Dec 1st, 2008

Club Meeting - LMX 390 5:30 pm!

Hello All,

You will be receiving 2 emails from the club account. This email details specific, upcoming volunteer opportunities available. More volunteering you do, the more hours you obtain for your "volunteer transcript" offered here at Ottawa U!!! Please read below for more information...

Co-Curricular Record (CCR) (for Univ of Ottawa students only)

An official document signed by the Dean of the University of Ottawa that records your volunteer activities and hours. The only catch is that you must have a minimum of 20 hours by the end of the school year. For more information/registration please check out the Student Academic Success Service (SASS) at www.sass.uottawa.ca/ELS

Kiwanis World Trivia Night (Nov 21st) - Aberdeen Pavillion, Lansdowne Park

This is a very fun event! Teams of 10 answer a great variety of questions (under the clock) to test their team knowledge on history, sports, literature, geography, world news, etc. We are seeking volunteers for this spectacle! You could be selling beer or pizza, runners for the scoreboard, etc from 5:30 – 11pm and also the evening before on Thurs (5:30-8:30 pm – installing banners, etc.) Volunteers will be very well "fed and watered." If interested, forward your names to the club account (info@circleclub.com) ASAP.

Note. Doors open at 5:00 p.m., teams seated by 6:15 and the game starts promptly at 7:00 p.m. Parking receipts will be reimbursed.

Birth and Parent Companion Program (Nov. 23rd)

We are seeking volunteers for this fun, festive event held on Sunday November 23 2008. I did this last year and it was great! We helped build gingerbread houses for the fundraiser, help with set up, registration table, candy runner, clean up and much more. If interested, forward your names to the club account ASAP. For the names listed below, please let me know if you are still interested and if so, when do you prefer to volunteer (i.e. morning, afternoon, all day?):

- ❖ Chieu Anh Ta
- ❖ Elmira Ahmady
- ❖ Alexandra Fottinger
- ❖ Emily McFall
- ❖ Zach Boisvert

Hunger Banquet (Nov. 26th) - "Because we're hungry for change!"

The Univ. of Ottawa Kiwanis CKI Club and International House (iHouse) are proud to present and co-host a Hunger Banquet to engage the campus on the problems of global hunger. For those interested in helping the night of the event, please contact Shiva Adel at: shiva@circlekclub.com

Tickets are now available at iHouse!!!!

For those that wish to purchase tickets:

Tickets: $8.00 in advance OR $10.00 at the door!!!

The Reading Program

This is done through Ottawa Centre for Research and Innovation (OCRI). Essentially, it involves reading to elementary school kids at York Street Public School and some other schools once a week.

The Ottawa Heart of the City Piano Program

There are now approx. 7 schools and over 100 kids involved. If you feel competent teaching piano to young kids - WE WANT YOU! Many of the children might not get a chance to learn otherwise learn and it's a great experience.

NOTE. Both the Reading Program and the Piano Program require a Police Record Check done. Thus, it takes a long time – its not difficult, its just a lot of waiting.

The Ottawa Mission

There are spaces available to volunteer at The Ottawa Mission, a homeless shelter just across the street from the Agora Bookstore. Let me know if you are interested and I will give you all the information and the forms you require.

Luncheons

So why attend?! 4 reasons....

- FREE (must be a paid member!
- Chateau Laurier on Fridays from noon – 1 pm (can leave early if you have class at 1pm...)
- The dress is always business casual...
- get to network with our parent and sponsor club, the Kiwanis Club of Ottawa – REALLY cool adults in various fields, such as lawyers, politicians, business men and women, etc.

Myself (Joan) and Kiarash are planning to attend the luncheon this Friday (Nov 21st). If you are interested, please forward your names to the club account by Thurs Nov 20th by noon sharp!!!
